

APPRENTICE PROFILE – BRICKLAYING

SAM HANDLEY

Sam has attended Prospects College since August 2003 and he is currently working towards a Level 2 NVQ in Bricklaying. Before attending Prospects College, Sam worked alongside his Grandfather gaining experience in brickwork and paving. Sam believes his attitude towards work has helped him to achieve large parts of his framework and is dedicated to completing his bricklaying course. Sam enjoys the challenge of hard work and has an impeccable attendance record; Sam is polite and eager to learn new skills.

PERSONAL DETAILS

DATE OF BIRTH: 06 May 1987
LOCATION: Canvey Island, Essex
DRIVING LICENCE: Provisional – Rides a Moped Scooter

EDUCATION

Prospects College: August 2003 – Current Date

Currently studying for NVQ Level 2 in Bricklaying and has obtained the following skills to date:

- Stretcher Bond return corners
- Block walling
- Garden walls
- Arches segmental and semi circular
- Placement of lintels
- Laying damp proof course
- Placement of window frames
- Theory sessions to support Bricklaying
- Various types of Bonds
- Flemish Bond
- English Bond
- Certificates Achieved
- Intermediate Construction Award
- Slinging and Signalling
- Abrasive Wheels
- Health and Safety

SAM IS AVAILABLE IMMEDIATELY

If you would like details on any of our apprentices in Bricklaying, Carpentry & Joinery or Painting & Decorating or would like to find out more about Prospects College please contact our Apprenticeship Team on 01702 391000 or email us at apprenticeships@prospectscollege.co.uk.